"The world has gone mad over two things today, money and pleasure," said Dr. Charles A. Blanchard in one of a series of talks on "Getting of a series of talks on "Getting Things From God." Dr. Blanchard spoke Friday night on "Hindrances of Prayer." stressing the clamor for money and pleasure as one of the chief hindrances and criticizing the church member of today who seems church member of today who seems satisfied that he is a member, giving little thought to prayer and spiritual development in his life and keeping many from seeing the possibilities of the church and its benefit in their life, by their attitude

Inconsiderate living on the part of husbands is one of the things mainly responsible for the hindrance of home worship, said Dr. Bianchard. No man can conduct a home and prayer ser-vice successfully whose life was not right and clean.
Dr. Blanchard is considered one the best authorities on the subject of prayer, is the author of a number of hooks, "Getting Things From God" being one of the most poppular.

The last of the group meetings of the Bible conference will be held Sunday night and the distinguished scripture expositors will transfer their efforts Monday to all-day ses-sions to be held at Central Baptist church, with lectures scheduled as follows: 10 a.m., Dr. Blanchard; 11 s.m., Dr. Evans; noon, Dr. Torrey; 2:30 p.m., Dr. Ostrom; 3:30 p.m., Dr. Evans; 7 p.m., Dr. Blanchard;

8 p.m., Dr. Torrey.
Miss Ena Bridges was to lecture on the thrilling experiences she encountered during her seven years' service as a missionary in Persia, to a mass meeting for women at Central Baptist church Saturday afternoon. Miss Bridges' address will be the feature of the 7:30 p.m. meeting at Central church Saturday night. Rev. William Young, song evange-list, is adding greatly to the interest of the conference by his direction of the congregation singing, and by hi exceptionally fine solo work.

Local Boy Scouts Aid In National Fire Prevention

Local boy scouts Saturday dis-tributed 5,000 copies of state fire rules. These rules are printed on heavy cardboard, and are intended to be lurg in the office, factory and home. Officials at boy scout head-quarters say the distributing of the cards was carried through in a very systematic manner.

Department Store Adds To Holdings

J. Goldsmith & Sons company has purchased the four-story brick building at Gayoso avenue and South Front street, owned by Maj G. W. Macrae. This gives the department store ownership of half the black on which the store is located. Rapid expansion of business has necessitated the purchase, it is stated.

Activities Among Memphis Negroes BY REV. T. O. FULLER

A crowd estimated at 8.000 people went to Church's auditorium Friday night to hear an aidreas by Boscow Conkling Simmons, in many respects the most popular negre crator in the country. Among other things, he said 'I am happy to be lack in Memphis, on Beale street. For myseif I expect to live and die in Dixie. Negro leaders can't keep the masses of their race in the South Educators preachers hankers of the race can't quiet the unrest. It is the task of the Southern white man. Give us schools for our children, justice in the courts and decent places to ride when we travel, together with the right to have a say in the affairs of a government to which we have cheerfully given our money our service and our very life blood, and the negroes will be content to live in the South and make it blorsom as a rose. Before the regular speech, Simmons adaressed several thousand on the outside who could not gain entrance to the building. Wayman Wilkerson presided. The Star Spangled Hanner was sung. W. H. Berford made the invocation and Re. T. O. Fuller was selected to introduce the speaker. the speaker.

The widow of Booker T. Washing-ton is in the city. She attended the conference of Southern women on race

The pastor of the First Baptist church, St. Faul avenue, will preach a special evangelistic sermon Sunday morning. The choir will render special music. A large crowd is expected.

The services at Emanuel Episcopal nurch will be especially interesting unday morning. The new rector will be in charge.

Prof. G. P. Hamilton is pushing the work at Kortreckt high school with his old-time vigor. The band will scen become an attractive feature as in days past.

The University of West Tennesses Medical college is well attended, and there is much enthusiasm among the students.
